| 1 | Will travel allowances be approved for 'Q' cleared individuals traveling to Oak Ridge TN from their home base for this work? | No. |
| 2 | Based on what we understand about the work location and the scope of work this will be in a clean environment. If this is correct is Rad Worker II even required? | Rad Worker II training has been removed from the Qualification Criteria within Amendment 01. If field conditions change, UCOR will stop work and provide the necessary training. |
| 3 | GET Training is usually provided when badges are processed for the site. Can GET be taken prior to getting badged? | Yes, General Employee Training can be taken on the internet at any time by going to the following web address: LEARN@sra-or.com |
| 4 | Although the people listed will have badge numbers they may not have badges due to a lack of contract mechanisms to hold them. After contract award it will take at least 3 to 10 days to transfer these clearances. Is this acceptable? Will UCOR assist with expediting the paperwork through the system? | Yes, 3 to 10 days is acceptable. UCOR has provided the required form with only individual personal information to be added by the Offeror upon award, this should help expedite this process. UCOR will assist with expediting all required documentation. |
| 5 | Initial Hearing Conservation is an typically and online course. Does it matter who's training is turned in as proof? | Offeror must provide documentation showing the initial testing and medical hearing examination has been completed. UCOR will provide the actual classroom training. |
| 6 | A number of the courses are typically read only modules. Is it acceptable to show a required reading form for the training? | Documentation showing completion of training is required. |
| 7 | How many hours per week should be assumed when pricing both Items within Section 1? | Assume an average of 50 hours per week for Section 1. However, this average will vary from 45-50 hours per week and will increase to an average of 55-60 hours per week during the period of performance. The first two weeks, after award, will be 40 hour weeks for 2 escorts. The remaining 6 escorts will begin work within the first 4 weeks of award. |
